Small and friendly co-educational school located in popular Co. Galway!

Coláiste an Chreagáin is a small, vibrant co-educational school located in the Mountbellew area of Co. Galway.

The school has a proud tradition of academic excellence across the board, while also supporting student interests across a range of extra-curricular activities. High academic standards are ensured by the dedicated teaching team and this is reflected in the school's success in state examinations.

The school provides a well-structured learning environment in which teaching staff aim to identify and develop the individual gifts of students. The school's small class sizes also allow for more personalised teaching in a friendly and caring atmosphere.

Extra-curricular activities such as sports and debating form an important part of school life. In excess of €1,000,000 has been spent in recent years to improve the school's resources and refurbish its buildings. All these developments have enhanced the holistic education that Coláiste an Chreagáin provides, through creating the facilities and opportunities needed for its students to excel both in and outside the classroom.
