

EDMUND RICE COLLEGE

A modern co-educational school located in the coastal town of Carrigaline- just 20 minutes south of Cork city!

Newly established in 2016, Edmund Rice College is a co-educational Catholic secondary school housed in a state-of-the-art building and boasting modern and comfortable facilities. With an emphasis on both academic and holistic development, Edmund Rice students are encouraged to always give their best, and in doing so, to reach their full potential in a caring and nurturing environment.

Although Edmund Rice College is only in its infancy, it belongs to a group of schools which have a long and proud history in Irish education. These schools, through their pupils, have made an immense contribution to Irish culture and society.

Edmund Rice College wishes to be part of that history by ensuring the highest standard of education for its students so that they can realise their potential and make lasting contributions to the world in which they live.

Pastoral support at the college is second to none. The college's Guidance Counsellor endeavours to support all students in their journey through secondary education and their role involves counselling, providing information, educational guidance, career guidance, individual appointments and providing for the personal, educational and social development of all students.

CORK

Cork is Ireland's second largest city and boasts all the character, charm and excitement of the capital in a more compact setting. It is often referred to as 'the real capital of Ireland' by locals! Situated on the banks of the River Lee, the historic city centre offers fantastic cultural and shopping opportunities as well as lots of exciting things to do and places to explore. The city is truly the perfect blend of cosmopolitan city life and a traditional homely Irish atmosphere, making it a hugely popular choice for international high school students.

Beyond the city limits, students can explore the wider county of Cork-Ireland's biggest county. With its beautiful coastline, delicious food and picturesque colourful towns and villages, it's no wonder that the locals are fiercely proud of where they come from and are eager to welcome exchange students and introduce them to the Irish way of life.
